

"The work of preaching is the highest and greatest and most glorious calling to which anyone can ever be called"

Martyn Lloyd-Jones

Thank you!

We have now had the last Study Weekend of the year, which completes the first year of Salisbury Reformed Seminary. Looking back over the year, we thank God for His leading, guiding and enabling in every aspect of the work. Thank you for praying for us and supporting this new venture.

Finance

The Lord has blessed the seminary in many ways. We are indebted to the generosity of the Lord's people in supporting this ministry.

On the reverse of this page there is a statement from the Trustees about supporting students in need.

Timetable

We thank God for the lecturers, who combine pastoral responsibilities with the lecturing. We are grateful for their commitment to the task of training up students to be the Pastors of the future. Please pray that the Lord will bless the preparation and the delivery of these lectures in this coming year.

STUDENTS

We are grateful that the students have been attentive and appreciative of the teaching they have received. They recognise that they are acquiring not just head knowledge but also heart knowledge. One of them stated, "This year has been an incredible blessing!"

We are pleased and encouraged that two more men applied to attend the course at the Seminary and have been accepted. Please pray for them as they commence their studies on January 7th 2019.

The Trustees are deeply thankful to all who have so kindly and sacrificially supported the setting up of the seminary with a single donation, and in some cases more than one. The total received to date is in excess of £30,000 for which we are all truly humbled. All necessary set-up costs have been more than provided for. Expenditure is settling into regular and predictable patterns, but there are initiatives that Trustees would like to pursue. One such initiative is the regular provision of bursaries for students in need. A regular and predictable income flow would facilitate this.

Some supporters already send support via a monthly standing order and it would be helpful if others could support the Seminary in this way. If advice or assistance re. setting up such support (e.g. via a monthly standing order) would be helpful, please do not hesitate to contact our Treasurer, Richard Clarke:
