

“The work of preaching is the highest and greatest and most glorious calling to which anyone can ever be called”

Martyn Lloyd-Jones

Open Lecture Day

The Seminary held its first Open Lecture Day in November. We thank God that twelve men were able to join the students for the lectures. Some attended because they were interested in the Seminary, and we trust they will share in our vision for the work; others came who were considering the call of God to the ministry, and we trust the Lord will lead and guide them as they seek to serve Him. In the lectures, they were able to experience the Seminary teaching with its emphasis on heart religion— the lecturers being Malcolm Watts, Roland Burrows, Christopher Buss and John Saunders. There was also an opportunity for fellowship during the lunch hour.

Graduation

On Monday January 2nd 2023 at 11.00am, the Seminary will hold its third Graduation Meeting. The Graduation will be held in Emmanuel Church, Wilton Road, Salisbury SP2 7EE. The preacher on this occasion will be Pastor Philip Hopkins from Biddenden. If you are not able to attend, we hope to be able to broadcast the service on YouTube, so please join us online. We should be grateful for your prayers for the graduating students and for those who will be starting the course, as well as for the Seminary lecturers.

If you would like to join the Trustees and the students for the Graduation, please contact the Administrator at admin@salisburyseminary.org before 20th December; this will help us with the catering for the lunch provided afterwards.
