

“The work of preaching is the highest and greatest and most glorious calling to which anyone can ever be called”

Martyn Lloyd-Jones

Open Day Invitation

On Saturday June 1st 2024, Salisbury Reformed Seminary is holding its Open Day in Grove House, Wilton Road, Salisbury SP2 7EE. It would be lovely if you were able to join us for the day. We are grateful that William Macleod is willing to travel from Scotland to minister to us at the Open Day. He has been a real help and support to the Seminary.

Open Day

10.30 The Seminary (Malcolm Watts, Dewi Higham)

Open Day Message 1 (William Macleod)

Lunch provided.

13.30 The Value of the Seminary (James Buss)

Open Day Message 2 (William Macleod)

Before the Open Day meetings, at 9.00am, the students have a lecture with Roland Burrows on ‘William Carey’. You would be welcome to join the students. Please let us know if you plan to attend the lecture.

Please inform the Administrator if you are intending to come: admin@salisburyseminary.org by May 21st.

The Tenets of Calvinism

On Monday January 8th, a number of friends joined the students and trustees for Malcolm Watts’ lecture on ‘The Tenets of Calvinism’. He outlined the background to the Reformation which was “a religious movement born of the Spirit of God” and to Calvin himself. He then took us through the five points of Calvinism showing how they are thoroughly grounded in Scripture. He emphasised they are not just doctrines for they introduce us to God and to the heavenly realm.

It is worth listening to this lecture which is available in the Salisbury Seminary YouTube channel: The Tenets of Calvinism \(youtube.com\)

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified.
