

“The work of preaching is the highest and greatest and most glorious calling to which anyone can ever be called”
Martyn Lloyd-Jones

Open Day

On Saturday June 1st, Salisbury Reformed Seminary held its Open Day. A number of friends joined the students and trustees for the meetings, some visiting the Seminary for the first time. William Macleod preached challenging messages on the subject of prayer. Stressing its importance, he began by saying, “Nothing is more important than prayer.” He emphasised that it is important for all Christians but of vital importance for ministers of the gospel of Christ.

To listen to these messages, please visit the Seminary YouTube channel:
Salisbury Seminary YouTube channel

Open Lecture Day

OPEN LECTURE DAY
Time	Saturday October 12th
09.00 – 10.15	The Misery of Man’s Sinful State Malcolm Watts
10.30 – 11.45	Guidance David Kay
12.00 – 13.15	New Liberalism Neil Pfeiffer
14.15 – 15.30	Biblical Priorities John Thackway
15.45 – 17.00	Selina, Countess of Huntingdon Roland Burrows

On Saturday October 12th 2024, Salisbury Reformed Seminary is holding its Open Lecture Day. It is an opportunity for men interested and supportive of the Seminary to join the students at Grove House, 18 Wilton Road, Salisbury SP2 7EE. Refreshments will be provided.

Creation Lectures

Also, on Friday October 11th, Andy MacIntosh will be taking three lectures on Creation. All are welcome to join the students for these lectures. Refreshments will be provided.

CREATION LECTURES
Time	Friday October 11th
12.00 – 13.15	How Science grew out of the Reformation Andy MacIntosh
14.15 – 15.30	Why Creation is Theologically Important Andy MacIntosh
15.45 – 17.00	How True Science Points to the God of the Bible Andy MacIntosh

Please inform the Administrator by October 4th if you are intending to come to the Open Lecture Day and/or the Friday lectures on Creation:

admin@salisburyseminary.org